

Fast Facts for 1820hats
Your hat is your Crown.
Live free.

Your hat is your Crown.

Fashion is one thing. Amplifying a message of positivity, encouragement, and freedom is another.

Inspired from Matthew 18:20, “Where two or three are gathered in my name, I am among them”, our fedoras for men and women are the synthesis and perfection of agreement that changes the world and creates the power of God in alignment and agreement. They are more than just energetic, stylish, and artistic (in small, medium, and large brimmed designs). With a presence that is seamless from the corporate to the contemporary, it awakens and evokes the hidden creative inside of you.

It is wisdom. It is freedom. It is confidence. And your crown awaits you.

Live free.

Given upcoming events, collaborations, and partnerships, we invite you to connect with our brand to reveal the creative in you. Likewise, we welcome the opportunity to discuss our brand and our larger work with your platform and audience.

Remember, your hat is your crown. Live free.

Multiple styles and themes.

Infinite Waters. Resilience.

Combined with the Creation, New Creature, Freedom 2.0, Morning Star, Reflection, Resilience, I Am In The Midst, and Affirmation lines (with more forthcoming for the Winter of 2021), there truly is something amazing for men and women. It's more than just style and your hat as your canvas.

It's about self-expression and finding your voice.

It's about awakening and releasing what's inside of you.
